On 5 July 1952, a VP guard in Zehdenick [REDACTED] had a six-week furlough and that, subsequently, he would go to the U.S.S.R. for a two-year training course on jet fighters, together with several comrades. *

* [REDACTED] Comment. Recently, the rumor on the training of former German Air Force soldiers in the U.S.S.R. has been repeatedly reported. Although this rumor has not been confirmed it is believed credible because members of the satellite countries were also trained in the U.S.S.R. in 1949 and 1950.
